Notice of Application of Parole.

State of Oklahoma vs
County of Caddo
State of Oklahoma, plaintiff, vs
Whitebread, defendant.

To whom it may concern:
The public will take notice, that on the 20th day of August, A. D. 1912, before the Honorable Lee Cruce, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, at his office in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, the above defendant will make application on the day and date above for a parole, for the violation of the prohibitory law, when any or all parties interested therein may present and state any objections to the granting of same.

And whereas, on the 13th day of July, A. D. 1912, a petition was signed by the Hon. C. Ross Hume, County Judge, I. H. Kerr, County Attorney, and A. J. Blankenship, Sheriff, showing that the Defendant was an old and infirm Indian, unable to speak the English language, not acquainted with our laws, and that on the 11th day of July, 1912, he was found transporting one pint of whiskey from one place to another in Caddo County, Oklahoma, and entered a plea of guilty to the same and was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $50.00 and costs.

Whitebread,

Defendant.
